THE Butler Democrats made a clean sweep at Westfield, Massachusetts, yesterday. The Essex statesman may yet prove a mighty lively corpse.

THE Troy Times notes the fact that the Democratic majority in the United States Senate just preceding the outbreak of the civil war was the same as it is now, to-wit: Eight. That Senate did its part towards stopping the government, and this one will do the same thing, in a slightly different way.

ZACH CHANDLER, since his vigorous remarks in reference to Jeff.
Davis, delivered in the Senate a few days ago, does not seem to be popular with Southern Democratic editors.
For the want of some truthful charge to make against him, they say he was drunk—as if a Democratic editor thought it wrong to get drunk.

"BAD as was Grant's administration, a majority of the people of the United States would prefer four years more of it to four years of the Third system. The managers of either party can do better by rushing out into the street and grabbing the first two men in sight."—Memphis Avalanche.

Considering that this is from a Democratic standpoint, it is a high compliment to Ulysses, but awfully hard on "Old-Man-A-fraid-of-his-Nephew."

The New Postoffice Bill.

The following are some of the most important features of the new Postoffice bill, which was passed by Congress before its adjournment, as culled from a Washington special to the Cincinnati Gazette:

All mailable matter is divided into four classes: First, written matter; second, periodical publications; third, miscellaneous printed matter; and fourth, merchandise. Mail matter of the second class embraces all newspapers and periodicals issued as often as four times annually. All publications of this class, with certain exceptions, when sent from the office of publication, including sample copies, or when sent from a news agency to actual subscribers thereto, or to other news agents, shall be entitled to transmission at two cents a pound prepaid. This is the section which newspaper publishers so much desired to have passed, but which was also strongly opposed. It allows the sending of sample copies at the regular rates of second-class matter and not at transient rates. Publishers of newspapers, without subjecting themselves to extra postage, may fold within their regular issues a supplement, provided it is germane to the publication which it supplements, and omitted only from the regular issue for want of space, time or greater convenience. Publishers may also include in their publications bills and receipts and orders for subscriptions. Newspapers are allowed to send one copy of each actual subscriber within the county free through the mails, without delivery by letter carrier.

A tramp called at the house of Mr.
Truesdale, a farmer, living on the Highlands back of Newport, and finding Mrs. Truesdale alone, knocked her down, and tearing a sheet into strips, bound her under it and her feet lashed to a peg in the wall. He then robbed the house of a small sum of money and some valuables. The woman remained bound for five hours, and during the time gave birth to a child.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 11.
Special to the Chronicle.

SENATE.—Mr. Savage, from the Finance Committee, submitted a majority report, in which they recommend that the Capitol, Hermitage, Agricultural and bonds held by Mrs. President Polk and the Educational Institution to be funded with accrued interest at sixty cents, four per cent. interest; that the Union Bank, Bank of Tennessee, turnpike, Hiawasse, East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, Lagrange and Memphis and bonds known as anti-war railroad bonds be funded with accrued interest of fifty cents, and four per cent. interest; that bonds funded under the acts of 1868 and 1873 be funded at thirty-three cents and four per cent. interest, and recommend the rejection of Mineral Home, and bonds funded under the acts of 1868; that railroads bonds, issued since, be paid in non-interest bearing warrants at thirty-three cents, receivable for taxes and other dues.
They recommend that the Legislature act at once upon the settlement, and without the intervention of the of the committee, and to sit after adjournment. The committee was divided on submitting the proposition to the people, and submitted a bill embodying the above and was made the special order for Wednesday morning.

Mr. Samsell, from the minority, reported against the discrimination between bondholders or preferred creditors. That all the outstanding bonds were written evidences of indebtedness, containing a solemn promise to pay, and there was but one proposition from the creditors, and scaling the bonds without their consent was repudiation. The State had twice funded, each series on bonds alike and was now precluded from discriminating.

In the Senate the bills regulating appeals from inferior courts to Supreme Court and regulating the business of the Supreme Court, and to repeal the charter of Greenville passed third reading.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Rowell's face is greatly flushed, yet he keeps up his quick gait, spurring at intervals. Harryman walks steadily, leaping up the same gait constantly.
Ennis keeps hard at work. He has made the best mile, so far, in the match, it being made in eight minutes and twenty seconds. O'Leary goes around the track mechanically.
The opinion is freely expressed that something is the matter with him.
His face wears a dazed appearance, as if he was stupefied. Brandy is freely given him as a stimulant.
Some bets were made this morning on O'Leary coming last in the match, and they found takers. Betting was heavy on Rowell, and odds of two to one were taken on him.
There were also some bets made on Harryman coming in first. At 12 o'clock noon to-day the scores stood as follows: Rowell, 149 miles, one lap; Harryman, 139 miles, two laps; Ennis, 126 miles, two laps; O'Leary, 122 miles, three laps. About midnight it was reported that Rowell was feeling very sleepy, and it required an effort to fight the sensation off. Rowell this morning received the following dispatch from Sir John Astley: "London, March 11th.—To Rowell, Cilmores Garden: Go it, my boy; don't overdo it. Tell Atkinson to put on a century for me. Astley." "Century," Mr. Atkinson said, was £100 English money, or $500 in American coin. Kelley reported that up to 10 o'clock this morning $11,000 had been taken up at the ticket office.

About twenty minutes after ten o'clock this morning the record of the pedestrians stood: Rowell, 145 miles; Harryman, 131 miles; Ennis, 120 miles; O'Leary, 116 miles.

The betting this afternoon was 2 to 1 against O'Leary, 55 to 110 against Rowell, 15 to 1 against Ennis, and 3 to 1 against Harryman.

OHIO.

CLEVELAND, March 11.—John R. Avontall, an old and respected citizen of Marion, O., was found dead in bed this morning, with a bullet-hole in his head and the bed-clothing on fire. It is supposed he was murdered by some person endeavoring to rob the premises and the bed was set on fire to remove the evidences of the murder.

CINCINNATI, March 11.—On Saturday night a party of fifteen masked men called at the residence of Wm. Moore, a brother of General Groome, the cattle king of Winchester, Kentucky, and told him that unless he made immediate settlement of his debts he must leave the country. Moore procured a shot gun and fired into the crowd.
The latter fired a volley in return, three shots taking effect in Moore's body, inflicting severe wounds. Two men, who were suspected of being implicated in the affair, were afterwards arrested and lodged in jail.
Yesterday their confederates overpowered the guard and liberated them.

NEBRASKA.

CHICAGO, March 11.—A special to the Tribune from Omaha says: The important arrest was made here of H. C. Holland, charged with being an express robber. In the fall of 1875 he was an engineer on the North Missouri Railroad, and, with a confederate, entered the express car as the train was approaching St. Louis, overpowered the messenger, locked him up, rifled the safes of about three thousand dollars and got away. Holland, after considerable wandering, came to Omaha, tried several places for employment, and finally enlisted as a private soldier at Fort Omaha, whither the officers eventually tracked him.
Information has been received here that the Spotted Tail Indians are greatly dissatisfied at their isolation, and want to get back to the Missouri River, where supplies are cheaper.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, March 11.—At an annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company held this morning resolutions were introduced providing for a general reduction of salaries of all the employees, and placing upon all roads operated by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company their own express, to the exclusion of all other Express Companies, and placing upon their roads their own parlor sleeping and palace cars, to the exclusion of the Pullman Company, and for prohibiting the issuing of passes except to employees in the service of the Company, and then only when traveling on business of the Company.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.— At Oakland's municipal election yesterday the vote was very heavy.
The citizens elected five councilmen and five school trustees. The Workingmen men elected two councilmembers and one school trustee.
The vote for Mayor was close, the citizens' nominee probably being elected. In the municipal election at Salina the citizens elected a full ticket, except one councilman and one school trustee, who are Workingmen.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, March 11.—H. H.
Vickery, Sheriff of Douglas county, in this State, went last Saturday with a posse to the house of S. H. Alsop to arrest him. Alsop resisted the process and fired several shots at the Sheriff's party, one of which killed the Sheriff.
Alsop and his little girl five years old were then killed by the Sheriff's posse and two other persons wounded. The child's death, of course, was not designed.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, March 11.—The Republican City Convention to-day nominated A. M. Wright for Mayor, Col. P. W. Rickaby for City Attorney, and M. A. Farwell for Treasurer.

The wheat market seems greatly demoralized, the prices of to-day having declined two cents, with a weak feeling and pressure to sell at the one o'clock close. The reaction is chiefly on account of the rumors regarding Keene's movements.

MASSACHUSETTS.

WESTFIELD, MASS., March 11.— The Butler Democracy made a clean sweep of the election, electing their full ticket for selectmen by large majorities. They also elected two out of three school commissioners, Rev. Thomas Smyth, Catholic, being defeated. A full board of assessors, and all but one of the constables were elected on the Butler ticket. The election was run by the Butlers, under the head of "Independent Reform." A heavy vote was polled and there was great excitement.

THE EAST.

LONDON, March 11.—The Times Pest dispatch says: "The powers between the Powers as to the various points of the treaty of Berlin, which are still unexecuted, have not yet led to any positive proposals from any quarter, but they have made apparent the necessity of finding some general rule applicable to all cases of difference. It would not be surprising if the idea of the eventual reference of all such matters to the Ambassadors, at the decision of a majority of whom would be final, were revived as the only means of terminating the tedious negotiation.

MINOR DISPATCHES

OTTAWA, March 11.—Lieutenant Colonel Hon. John G. Blanchet, Speaker of the House of Commons, takes charge of the Wimbledon team this year, with Maj. Worsley Kingston second in command.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 11.—The ice in the Susquehanna river here commenced to move last night, and is now passing quietly down the river. All fears of the anticipated ice gorge is now removed.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 11.—
The special session of the Legislature convened this morning and organized. The officers and clerks of both Houses are the same as at the regular session.

FRANCE.

LONDON, March 11.—The Daily News' Paris dispatch says that the committee of the Chamber of Deputies have recommended that the second election of M. Paul De Cassagne be declared valid.
M. De Fourton, in the impeachment debate, will demand to be tried, and not merely let off with a vote of censure, which he contends that the Chamber of Deputies not being a judicial body has no power to pronounce on those no longer in office.

M. Pascal Duprat will preside at the first meeting of the Free Trade Society, which intends to have lectures on a great scale given throughout France. The Society is assured of the co-operation of John Bright and of the Cobden Club.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, March 11.—Semi-official papers say that surprise is felt in government circles at the general attempt made to give to England all the credit of having kept Russia to the treaty of Berlin.
The execution of the treaty is due above all to Germany's firmness.

War and Gold.—A hotel war based on gold prices. In order to accommodate both classes of travelers, the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, is now kept on both plans, the American at $2.50 to $3.00, and the European at $1.00 and upwards, per day. An elegant restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Hotel.
